

Law Enforcement Officer of the Year

Since 2011, Union County Crime Stoppers has honored a deserving officer each year at the local or state level – men or women who have gone above and beyond the call of duty. In addition to recognition in the community, the Officer of the Year recipient will be honored at the Union County Agricultural Center during the Union County Crime Stoppers Barbeque on January 18th, 2019 at noon. The award will include $1000 cash provided by sponsors: U.S. Bonding Company and First Citizens Bank.

Nomination Criteria

- Officers must be duly sworn officers with full arrest powers.
- Officers may be full or part-time.
- Officers must be currently employed by local or state law enforcement agency serving Union County.

Service for which the officer is being nominated for, can include, but limited to:

- Extreme actions of valor on or off duty
- Exemplary law enforcement service
- Community Service
- Distinguished service throughout their career
